Reggae act Vegetation plays three dates in SLO County this week: Thursday, Feb. 19 at O'Grady's in Paso Robles; Friday, Feb. 20 at O'Rileys in Grover Beach; and Saturday, Feb. 21 at Frog & Peach in SLO Town. The all-original reggae band hails from San Diego and is touring in support of their debut CD, From the Garden. A live recording is planned for a spring release. The band has street cred, having opened for the Mighty Diamonds, Eek a Mouse, the Untouchables, Barrington Levy, Wailing Souls, and the legendary Skatalites. Learn more at vegetationmusic.com.

Creekside Lanes has some Mardi Gras fun planned for Friday, Feb. 20, when the seven-piece Sweatshop Band plays from 8 to 11:30 p.m.

Hailing from Moscow, Idaho, the band mixes bluegrass, funk, rock, reggae, and folk into freeform jams replete with a tribal percussion section. Copies of Mr. Green, the band's newest CD, will be available for sale during the concert. The all-ages show costs $5.

Rock trio Super Rider delivers melodic rock tunes with a youthful aggressive punk edge—all tied to the California surf and skateboarding lifestyle. The band appears Friday, Feb. 20 at Sunset Dunes Bar & Grill in Grover Beach to promote its Skate or Die Records debut, Everything So Right.

Duo Four Shillings Short plays an array of instruments including East Indian sitar, hammered dulcimer, various Medieval and Renaissance woodwinds, mandolin and mandola, tin whistles, banjo, and various percussion. Add vocal harmonies from native Irishman Aodh Og O'Tuama and Californian Christy Martin mixed with Celtic, folk, and world music sounds, and you've got one of the most unique, eclectic, fascinating acts out there. See them Friday, Feb. 20 at 7 p.m. at Coalesce Bookstore in Morro Bay ($10).

The Cal Poly Choirs present their annual Winter Concert this Saturday, Feb. 21 at 8 p.m. in the Christopher Cohan Center's Harman Hall. The
